

ENTERTAINMENT

Las Vegas' casino-resorts offer that "on board" feeling with a variety of entertainment and attractions all conveniently located on and around the Strip and Downtown resort corridors. From supper clubs, comedy and lounges boasting craft cocktails and ambient music, to stunning views of the city from atop the 550-foot-tall High Roller or an under-the-sea adventure at the Shark Reef, Las Vegas provides something for everyone to enjoy.

EXCURSIONS

With an abundance of state, national parks and recreation areas in close proximity along with day trips to three nearby states – California, Arizona and Utah – easily accessible, travelers will find that Las Vegas is the ideal hub destination for a variety of adventures. Travelers of all ages will find world-class hiking, biking, rock-climbing, water sports, yoga or a serene picnic just a short drive from their home base at a Las Vegas resort. Whether you're looking for adventure or relaxation, curated commissionable experiences can be easily preplanned and booked into a Las Vegas itinerary.

DINING

There's no end to the dining options that visitors will find in Las Vegas, from renowned celebrity chefs to some of the most popular restaurants from across the country. While all-inclusive dining options aren't available, advisers can help travelers find packages that include generous resort credits that can be used for meals at the many restaurants within the resort. Commissionable dining for groups and select prix fixe menus are also available, including food tours and tasting menus. Family-style and all-you-can-eat options are also a familiar way for travelers to budget for meals with seemingly endless variety.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Travelers will enjoy a choice of many different accommodations from standard guestrooms to rooms with beautiful views, unique suites, club levels, and privacy in the many luxury suites and villas available on and off the Las Vegas Strip.

GROUPS & ROMANCE TRAVEL

Las Vegas provides the ultimate escape for those looking to celebrate their love for one another, renew their vows or commemorate a special occasion with family and friends. Groups of all sizes will find a wealth of niche experiences, including friendly golf outings, relaxing spa getaways, sophisticated shopping trips, adrenaline pumping thrills or serene outdoor adventures. A variety of interactive modern or historical art and cultural attractions can also enrich a group experience.

TRAVEL RESTRICTION

Las Vegas has changed tremendously in recent years, but continues to capture the world's imagination as the one destination where nearly anything is possible. Beyond the 24-hour-a-day casino excitement, visitors will find the best restaurants, the most unique entertainment options, and the greatest variety of resort accommodations in the world. Las Vegas opens travelers to a world of experiences without the need for international passports or domestic travel restrictions.
