Food For Thought

Reno Tahoe's fast-growing drink and culinary scene brings out the foodie in all of us. Countless, award-winning choices await to fuel your adventure. Taste your way through dozens of up and coming craft breweries and distilleries. A guided culinary walking tour through downtown Reno or Midtown District provides an insider's view of the local culinary movement.

Art Lives Here

Reno Tahoe is a culturally vibrant region and a true arts destination. Several museums, including the Nevada Museum of Art and the National Automobile Museum, are found in downtown Reno along a leisurely stroll down the Truckee River. The city is filled with urban sculptures and larger-than-life murals that grace the walls of many buildings. Join a guided Midtown mural tour to discover many of the city's hidden gems.

The Wild and Free

With more than 300 days of sunshine each year, opportunities to get outside in Reno Tahoe are endless. It's easy to find activities that satisfy a range of outdoor enthusiasts from the sightseeing leisure traveler to the hardcore athlete. Spring, summer and fall hiking, biking, golfing, kayaking, stand-up paddleboarding, fishing and horseback riding are nearby. In winter, explore the Lake Tahoe region where you can find the largest concentration of ski resorts in North America, snowshoeing and snowmobile tours.
